

Dear Residents

Here is Coulsdon Wards updates for the month of December. In line with ward priorities, the Coulsdon wards have worked collaboratively well to attend Christmas events, foot and mobile patrols and as well as burglary reassurance visit and distribution of cocooning to residents. We continue to do our best to work with Policing Partners, Outside Agencies and Residents for intelligence lead policing, to build More Trust, Less Crime and High standard. Below are the ward focus priorities reports

PRIORITIES

Violence against the person : We had 15 reports on violence against the person this month of December (9 Common Assault and 6 ABH ) majority of these incidents happened on private premises, public spaces and school incidents. We will continue to increase our visibility patrol and reassurance visits where possible

Burglary: We had 9 burglary reports this month (8 Residential Burglary and 1 Commercial Burglary) suspects gained entry to victims properties, valuable items were stolen. We will continue to increase our visibility patrol, reassurance visit as well as distribution of Cocooning and leaflets to residents.

Robbery: We had 1 robbery report this month. Suspect known to victim. Victim was followed down an alleyway and had his coat, phone, bank card and house keys stolen.
